TRANSITION TOWN LEADERSHIP TRAINING

A training for anyone involved in the Transition Town movement who wishes to develop their capacity to lead and inspire.

Robin Alfred, M.Phil (Cantab), and Gill Emslie, Dip. PW, are co-founders of the Findhorn Consultancy Service, which seeks to develop sustainability and resilience within individuals, teams and whole organisations.

This week-long course is set in the inspirational ecovillage at Findhorn, Scotland and comprises:

- ▶ Two-day mythodrama training, Inspirational Leadership through Shakespeare's Henry V, to help you expand your repertoire and inspire a wider variety of stakeholders
- ▶ A process oriented approach to developing resilience and awareness
- ▶ Developing conflict facilitation & group skills
- ▶ Individual coaching and in-depth work to help participants grow into their full leadership potential
- ▶ Experience of the Findhorn ecovillage, the ecovillage paradigm and dimensions of sustainability
