

James Finley

Following the Mystics through the Narrow Gate

20~22 September 2011

James Finley has been a student of contemplative prayer for more than 20 years, and has studied with Thomas Merton. He is the author of several books and leads meditation workshops and retreats throughout North America.

We follow the mysterious process in which ego-based experience yields to a rich, interior experience of oneness. Seeing God in all things and all things in God, we experience the peace that surpasses all understanding. This retreat is an informal but in-depth exploration of the ways in which the mystics help us find our way through the interior landscape of our own soul.

Income related price : £395/£495/£595.
